Course content

The course deals with the basic writing and sound system of Arabic and introduces an elementary vocabulary. It provides students with a systematic overview of basic Arabic grammar and with insight into the structure of Arabic as a Semitic language. All completed grammatical components are practised and learnt through oral and written exercises.

The course consists of the following modules:

1. Elementary Arabic Grammar I, 7.5 credits
2. Communicative Arabic I, 7.5 credits

Course design

The teaching consists of lectures and 15-20 exercises. Attendance at exercises is compulsory.

Assessment

The assessment is based on:

Module 1: a written invigilated exam or a take-home exam at the end of the course.

Module 2: 1-3 compulsory written assignments and an oral and written exam at the end of the course, either in the form of one combined exam or two partial exams.

The examiner may deviate from the regular form of examination if the student has been granted an alternative form of examination by the Disability Support Services, and if it complies with the learning outcomes of the course.

The examiner may deviate from the regular form of examination if it cannot be implemented during a re-examination, and if it complies with the learning outcomes of the course.

Subcourses that are part of this course can be found in an appendix at the end of this document.

Grades

Marking scale: Fail, Pass, Pass with distinction.

For a grade of Pass on the whole course, the student must have been awarded this grade on both modules. For a grade of Pass with Distinction on the whole course, the student must have been awarded this grade on both modules.
