

LUND
UNIVERSITY

Faculties of Humanities and Theology

ARKN03, Archaeology and Ancient History, Work Placement, 15 credits

Arkeologi och antikens historia: Praktik, 15 högskolepoäng

Second Cycle / Avancerad nivå

Details of approval

The syllabus was approved by the programmes director by delegation from the pro-dean for first- and second-cycle studies on 2008-06-17 to be valid from 2008-06-17, autumn semester 2008.

General Information

The course is offered as a single course. It can normally be included as part of a first or second cycle degree. With the approval of the relevant authenticating body, it can also be included in certain professional degrees.

Language of instruction: Swedish

Main field of studies

Archaeology and Ancient History

Depth of study relative to the degree requirements

A1N, Second cycle, has only first-cycle course/s as entry requirements

Learning outcomes

On completion of the course the student shall

Knowledge and understanding

- be able to give an account of the practical application of archaeological perspectives within the field of his/her work placement

Competence and skills

- be able to reflect on the connections between the activities of the work placement and a field of knowledge relevant to the subject
- be able to discuss and analyse the role of archaeology in society both orally and in writing

Judgement and approach

- demonstrate insights into the role of archaeology in society, in particular in relation to the field of activity of his/her work placement
- be able to discuss and form an opinion on issues relating to the potential from the point of view of cultural history and scholarship of the field of activity of his/her work placement.

Course content

The course consists of a work placement within the field of Archaeology and Classical Archaeology and Ancient History. The subject matter of the practical work placement can vary depending on the area of specialisation selected by the student and the field of activity of the various work placements. Work placements may take place at archives, museums, companies, county administrative boards etc. Organisations running projects outside Sweden may also be included. The department has the final responsibility for organising the work placements for the students, but students may also take an initiative to organise placements. In these cases, placements must be approved by the programme management.

Course design

Teaching consists of the work placement and compulsory seminars.

Assessment

Examination takes the form of the ten-week work placement and an oral and written account of this.

Subcourses that are part of this course can be found in an appendix at the end of this document.

Grades

Marking scale: Fail, Pass, Pass with distinction.

Entry requirements

To be eligible for the course, students must have successfully completed ARKK01, or the equivalent.

Further information

1. The credits allocated for course content that in whole or in part is commensurate with another course can only be credited once for a degree. For further details see the current registration information and other relevant documentation.

Subcourses in ARKN03, Archaeology and Ancient History, Work Placement

Applies from V09

0801 Examination, 15,0 hp
Grading scale: Fail, Pass, Pass with distinction