Course content

In addition, the course focuses on the learning of words and idiomatic expressions of different kinds.

The course is divided into the following three modules

1. Grammar, 7.5 credits
2. Phonetics and Pronunciation, 4.5 credits
3. Vocabulary, 3 credits

Course design

The teaching consists of group work, lectures, seminars, workshops and teaching via a teaching platform. Pronunciation practice in a language lab may be included.

Assessment

1. The assessment of Grammar (7.5 credits) is based on a written invigilated exam.
2. The assessment of Phonetics and Pronunciation (4.5 credits) is based on a written invigilated exam.

3. The assessment of Vocabulary (3 credits) is based on one major written invigilated exam at the end of the course, and four minor invigilated exams during the course. The students are expected to take three of the four minor written exams. The results from the minor exams and the result from the major written exam at the end of the course are combined into a final grade for the Vocabulary module.
