Cultural Sciences with specialization in Publishing

Depth of study relative to the degree requirements
G2E, First cycle, has at least 60 credits in first-cycle course/s as entry requirements, contains degree project for BA/BSc

Learning outcomes
On completion of the course, the students shall be able to

Knowledge and understanding
• provide a specialised account of the structure, function and practice of the publishing and book market
• master basic concepts, ideas and issues that relate to the book sector
• provide a specialised account of a delimited field within publishing studies

Competence and skills

This is a translation of the course syllabus approved in Swedish
• independently execute qualified assignments within the main fields of the book sector, e.g. publishing law, publishing economics and the work of publisher's readers
• use their subject knowledge to identify, describe, interpret and discuss phenomena and issues related to the book market
• take a position on, manage, formulate and delimit relevant issues by producing a paper—individually or together with a fellow student—and be able to make it comprehensible to others

Judgement and approach
• constructively handle assignments and problems in professional practice related to the book sector
• assess disciplinary, societal and ethical issues of relevance to the subject
• demonstrate a good ability to evaluate their own work and those of others
• plan their own continuing professional development

Course content
The course consists of a work placement and a degree project. The work placement is intended to provide students with professional experience and the opportunity to apply theoretical knowledge of publishing and book market issues. The degree project provides students with training in academic writing and qualified analysis of issues related to the publishing and book market.

The course is divided into three modules:

1. Work Placement, 9 credits,
2. Theory and Method, 6 credits,
3. Degree Project, 15 credits.

Course design
The work placement and the degree project can partly be executed in parallel. Experiences from the work placement are to be presented at compulsory seminars and in a final work placement report. Modules 2 and 3 include theory and method seminars, group supervision and individual supervision. The degree project can be executed individually or by two students and is to be presented at a compulsory, assessed seminar in which each student is to individually review the degree project of another student.

Assessment
Module 1. Completed internship and work placement report.
Module 2. Written take-home exam.
Module 3. Degree project, participation in an assessed seminar as author of a project and as a reviewer.
Passed degree projects at the Faculties of Humanities and Theology can be registered in the LUP Student Papers database if the student so wishes. The student is responsible for uploading the passed degree project as a PDF file in LUP student papers.
