Course content

The course content is determined by the preconditions that follow repertoire and ensemble type and are specific to the instrument. The course mainly consists of certain works from the orchestra repertoire for the instrument.

Course design

The course is usually carried out in the form of orchestra projects with rehearsals and concerts (musical studies, own rehearsal work). It could also be in the form of group lessons, seminars, and workshops/master classes.

At the start of the study year the students shall be informed which weeks the orchestra projects are conducted. It is compulsory to be available to participate in all of these projects. The selection of students ahead of each project is done by teachers for each instrument/group of instruments.

Assessment

Examination of the course is arranged through continuous assessment and, in applicable cases, project presentations. Examination rules and mark limits shall be communicated to the student at the beginning of the course.

Re-examination shall be offered in close connection to the regular examination.

The examiner, in consultation with Disability Support Services, may deviate from the regular form of examination in order to provide a permanently disabled student with a form of examination equivalent to that of a student without a disability.

Subcourses that are part of this course can be found in an appendix at the end of this document.
