Course content

The course is the final presentation of Degree Project (30 credits). The course consists of a concert part and a reflecting part. The concert part consists of a solo performance with orchestra, alternatively (for composition students in possible cases) of a symphonic composition performed by an orchestra.

The course contains independent artistic work within the educational specialisation as well as reflection on working methods, artistic interpretation problems and experiences in the process connected to the independent work (Degree Project). The work shall be documented.

Course design

The course includes the student's individual work as well as individual lessons and group lessons, tutoring and seminars.

Assessment

Examination of the concert part is arranged through an exam concert, such as a solo performance with orchestra, alternatively for composition students the performance of a symphonic composition by the student performed by an orchestra, or the equivalent. The reflecting part is assessed through presentation. The independent work shall be documented.

Examination rules, such as examination requirements and mark limits, shall be communicated to the student at the beginning of the course.

Re-examination of the course shall be offered in close connection to the regular examination.

The examiner, in consultation with Disability Support Services, may deviate from the regular form of examination in order to provide a permanently disabled student with a form of examination equivalent to that of a student without a disability.
