

Faculty of Social Sciences

PSPV02, Professional Conversation Methodology for Psychologists, 5 credits
Samtalsmetodik för psykologer, 5 högskolepoäng
Second Cycle / Avancerad nivå

Details of approval

The syllabus was approved by the board of the Department of Psychology on 2017-03-07 to be valid from 2017-08-28, autumn semester 2017.

General Information

The course is included as compulsory course in the course block "Supplementary education for individuals with foreign Degree of Master of Science in Psychology, 90 credits".

Language of instruction: Swedish

Main field of studies

Psychology

Depth of study relative to the degree requirements

AXX, Second cycle, in-depth level of the course cannot be classified

Learning outcomes

On completion of the course, the students shall be able to

Knowledge and understanding

- show advanced knowledge of communication methodology and the conversations of how different types can be planned and be carried out depending on the aim of the conversation and the client's preconditions

Competence and skills

- show good ability to plan and carry out conversations based on a professional approach as well as orally and in writing report this work

Judgement and approach

- demonstrate the ability to identify, reflect on and apply a professional and ethical approach in relation to the themes and assignments included in the course

Course content

The course intends to give the student necessary knowledge and skills to be able to carry out professional conversations in relation to different parts of psychologists' profession exercise.

Course design

The teaching is given as lectures, literature studies, seminars, supervision and practical exercises. Compulsory attendance applies at seminars, supervision and exercises as well as course introductions. Compensation or alternative time for compulsory component during current semester are always offered students who owing to circumstances beyond their control for example accidents, sudden disease or the like events, could not carry out the compulsory component. This also applies to students who have been absent because of duties as an elected student representative. In the case of valid absence, students are responsible for contacting the course director. In case of absence of other causes, course coordinator determines if how the component should be supplemented after assessment in each individual case.

Assessment

The course is examined through written assignments and practical tests.

Subcourses that are part of this course can be found in an appendix at the end of this document.

Grades

Marking scale: Fail, Pass.

For a grade of Pass, the student must have attained the learning outcomes stated for the course.

At the start of the course students are informed about the learning outcomes stated in the syllabus and about the grading scale and how it is applied in the course.

Entry requirements

For admission to the course, it is required that the student is admitted to the course block "Supplementary education for individuals with foreign Degree of Master of Science in Psychology, 90 credits". For admission to the course block applies the following:

Entry requirements:

- A foreign Degree of Master of Science in Psychology that gives entry requirements to exercise work in the land of origin as psychologist or, if the profession in the land of origin is not regulated that includes at least four years of studies and give a degree in psychology at second cycle level (for example Degree of Master (120 credits) in psychology with clinical specialisation). Degree should include the core areas of the psychology for example cognition, learning and developmental psychology. It should also contain research methodology as well as psychopathology/psychiatry or the equivalent (e g mental health and or mental health). Degree should also include practical elements or that the applicant has documented professional experience as psychologist.

- Swedish 3 or Swedish as second language 3

- English 6 or the equivalent

Selections: The selection takes place through an overall assessment of the applicant's collected qualifications, such as earlier education and relevant professional or vocational experience.

Subcourses in PSPV02, Professional Conversation Methodology for Psychologists

Applies from H17

1701 Professional Conversation Methodology for Psychologists, 5,0 hp
Grading scale: Fail, Pass