Course content

Although primarily a result of military aggression, the Roman Empire existed for half a millennium. The course focuses on how this mighty empire arose, cohered and survived for such a long time. Students are provided with the opportunity to study the social, political and cultural aspects of empire-building at different levels, the city of Rome, the core Italic region and the province, in order to understand these issues. Furthermore, the Roman Empire is compared with other historical empires.

Course design

Teaching consists of lectures, seminars and workshops. Participation in seminars and workshops is compulsory.

Assessment

The assessment is based on oral presentations at seminars, active attendance at workshops and an independent written assignment. Other forms of examination may be applied, if separately agreed by students and lecturers.

Subcourses that are part of this course can be found in an appendix at the end of this document.
