Course content

The course provides the students with an introduction to Swedish politics. Topics discussed include the political system in general, the constitution, the government and the various Swedish political parties. Both historical and contemporary perspectives are taken. Emphasis is on the role of Sweden as a small country in a global context, and as a member of the European Union and the United Nations. Swedish attributes such as the "Swedish Model" and the policy of neutrality are analysed from a historical perspective as well as with reference to the present situation. Special attention is given to policies concerning issues of social welfare, gender equality, refugees and diversity.

Course design

Teaching consists of lectures and seminars. Active participation at seminars is compulsory.

Assessment

The assessment is based on participation in group exercises and seminars and on a written take-home exam. Other forms of examination may occur, if an agreement is reached with the students.
