Language of instruction: Swedish and English

Main field of studies

- G1N, First cycle, has only upper-secondary level entry requirements

Depth of study relative to the degree requirements

Learning outcomes

On completion of the course, the students shall be able to

Knowledge and understanding

- provide a basic account of the impact of context and communication situation on both the choice of words and stylistic design of different types of texts
- account for key aspects of the structure of modern Swedish with regard to morphology and syntax

This is a translation of the course syllabus approved in Swedish
• describe basic features of Swedish pronunciation
• account for summary, quotation and referencing techniques
• account for different registers in Swedish usage, e.g. different degrees of formality with regard to word choice, pronunciation and syntax • describe at least two selected Swedish literary texts and their authors
• account for current public debate in Swedish mass media in different areas of society

Competence and skills • communicate spontaneously with a good command of grammar and few signs of restriction, and choose a level of formality appropriate to the situation (oral proficiency)
• write analytical and thesis-driven texts of an academic character, exhibiting varied and correct sentence structure and coherence techniques (written proficiency) • interpret and comment on factual information, diagrams and tables in Swedish texts (written proficiency) • in speech and writing, use an extensive Swedish vocabulary dealing with social issues, and apply knowledge of argumentation and discussion techniques (oral proficiency)
• understand the main points in sophisticated spoken Swedish on difficult matters, with regard to both abstract and complex topics (listening comprehension) • assimilate large text volumes through skimming and scanning (reading comprehension).

Judgement and approach
• provide perspectives on Swedish society in some fields and make comparisons with international circumstances, and take a position on issues of ethnicity and cultural encounters
• identify their need of further knowledge and skills in the subject

Course content
The course includes teaching and practical exercises in Swedish language proficiency.
In parallel with proficiency training, it provides an overview of the distinctive features of the grammatical and phonetic systems of Swedish. The course enables students to practise oral proficiency through discussions, argumentations, short presentations and talks. Written language proficiency is practised through varied written assignments such as papers, reviews, practical letters and compilations of facts from different sources of information. Different texts are analysed with regard to genre and language style. Reading comprehension is practised through studies of both non-fiction and fiction texts. Newspaper articles, radio and TV programmes are used in the proficiency training.

To be admitted to module 5, students must have passed module 4.
The course consists of the following modules:
