Kursens mål

On completion of the course, the student shall demonstrate the ability to

Kunskap och förståelse

- describe and discuss the main issues relating to global governance arrangements, and the possibilities and challenges for democratizing global governance
- describe and discuss the research problems, theoretical traditions, and methods in the study of global governance and democracy

Färdighet och förmåga

- formulate a relevant research problem in the area covered by the course, and have the ability to appraise this problem theoretically and empirically.

- contribute to a common learning environment and to group dynamic aspects of learning.

Kursens innehåll

The course explores the possibilities and challenges for democratizing global governance. Both empirical and normative issues are examined. Questions raised in the course are:

- What factors account for the development, institutionalization and change of global governance arrangements?
- Is there a democratic deficit in global governance?
- How can we explain the rise and increased prominence of transnational actors in global governance arrangements?
- What should a stronger global democracy look like?

Kursens genomförande

Teaching includes lectures and seminars. Participation in seminars is mandatory. Students are assessed by way of an individual course paper as well as on active participation in seminars. In order to pass the course, the student must also submit three brief learning reports on their learning process.

Kursens examination

Re-examination will be offered after the end of the course. If necessary, a second re-examination will be arranged at a later date.
