(9 Pages)

Pages: 577
For a 7.5 credits first cycle course the social sciences faculty recommends 1,000 pages. The page number for this course is 577, and the justification is that several lecturers has wanted to give a few absolutely key texts rather than countless sources. The course also includes five assignments, which will be time-consuming and require considerable extra reading.

Gender balance: 47% female first-authorship - with 26 pages no main authors identified (e.g. UN Report summary)

393 pages - academic peer-reviewed articles
46 pages - online non-academic articles
50 pages - reports (e.g. IPCC)
88 pages - books

Additional readings to be suggested by guest lecturers.
