They shall simultaneously perform independent investigation and take full responsibility for the development of their own knowledge in an objective and critical manner.

Course content

The course includes a review of the European Union competition law – its economic basis, legal substance and current legal developments. The course relies heavily on the study of the case law of the Union Courts and the Decisions of the EU Commission. In the appropriate contexts, such as mergers, joint ventures and licensing agreements, the particularities of high-technology markets, including the intersection with intellectual property law, will be highlighted. Moreover, part of the course is devoted to Competition law procedure. Here, focus is drawn upon the procedural rules and other formal aspects in proceedings before the EU Commission and the Courts. Also, the modernisation of the procedural rules in Regulation 1/2003 including the role of national competition authorities and the Merger Control Reform will be addressed.

Course design

Teaching is provided in the form of lectures and seminars.

Assessment

Examination will take the form of a written exam. Grading will be based on oral and written presentations (20%) and the written exam (80%).

The examiner, in consultation with Disability Support Services, may deviate from the regular form of examination in order to provide a permanently disabled student with a form of examination equivalent to that of a student without a disability.

Subcourses that are part of this course can be found in an appendix at the end of this document.
