Course content

The course provides a systematic review of basic Arabic grammar: phonology, morphology and syntax. Great importance is attached to practical exercises of oral as well as written skills with a focus on communicative competence. Translation to and from Arabic is actively practised. Through speaking exercises and practical application of both Modern Standard Arabic and selected Arabic dialects, students learn to communicate with the correct register in both everyday situations and simple formal contexts.

The course consists of two modules:

1. The Arabic alphabet, word formation patterns and sounds of the Arabic language (2.5 credits)
2. Introduction to Modern Standard Arabic (7.5 credits)
3. Introduction to an Arabic dialect (5 credits)
4. Elementary Arabic Grammar I, (7.5 credits)
5. Arabic Dialect I (7.5 credits)

Course design

The teaching consists of 45-55 proficiency training seminars/exercises. Attendance and active participation in at least 80% of the course seminars/exercises is mandatory.

In addition to attending lectures, students must also complete all compulsory assignments for the modules.

Module 1 includes 1-2 assignments

Module 2 includes 2-3 assignments

Module 3 includes 1-2 assignments

Module 4 includes 2-3 assignments

Module 5 includes 2-3 assignments

Assessment of assignments and participation in teaching is continuous.

Supplementary assignment in the case of valid absence takes the form of oral and written examination of missed elements according to the teacher's instructions.

The opportunity to compensate for missed compulsory components is offered to students who have been unable to participate in compulsory components due to circumstances out of their control such as accidents, sudden illness or similar. This also applies to students who have missed teaching sessions due to elected office duties e.g. as student representative.

Assessment

The assessment of Module 1 is based on an invigilated exam at the end of the module.

The assessment of Module 2 is based on an invigilated exam at the end of the module.

The assessment of module 3 is based on an oral exam at the end of the module.

The assessment of Module 4 is based on an invigilated exam at the end of the module.

The assessment of module 5 is based on an oral exam at the end of the module.

The examiner, in consultation with Disability Support Services, may deviate from the regular form of examination in order to provide a permanently disabled student with a form of examination equivalent to that of a student without a disability.

Grades

Grading scale includes the grades: Fail, Pass, Pass with distinction

For the grade of Pass on the module, the student must have been awarded at least this grade on all elements of the assessment. For a grade of Pass with Distinction on the module, the student must have been awarded this grade for all assessed components.
