Judgement and approach

- judge the Bible as a historical document
- use scholarly criteria to assess different explanatory models of biblical studies

Course content

The course deals with the contents, genres, context and development of the Bible and its most important lines of thought. The students are also introduced to the basic issues of hermeneutics, and receive training in using different scholarly methods to analyse the texts of the Bible and to execute independent text and interpretation exercises. The students are to produce two minor interpretations (exercises in exegesis) within the course.

The course consists of two modules:

1. The Old Testament, 7.5 credits,
2. The New Testament, 7.5 credits.

Course design

The teaching consists of lectures and seminars.

Assessment

The course is assessed on the basis of two invigilated exams and two written interpretations (exercises in exegesis).

Subcourses that are part of this course can be found in an appendix at the end of this document.

Grades

Marking scale: Fail, Pass, Pass with distinction.

To be awarded a grade Pass on the whole course, students must have been awarded this grade on both modules. To be awarded a grade of Pass with Distinction on the whole course, the student must have been awarded this grade on both modules.

Entry requirements

To be admitted to the course, the student must have passed Religious Studies and Theology: Level 1 (CTRA12/CTRD12/CTRA11/CTRD01) or Religious Studies: Level 1 (CTRA10) or the equivalent.
