G2E, First cycle, has at least 60 credits in first-cycle course/s as entry requirements, contains degree project for BA/BSc

Learning outcomes

On completion of the course, students shall be able to

Knowledge and understanding

- provide a specialised account of an elective field of English language or literature
- account for relevant and current research questions
- account for methodological choices in a selected research field

Competence and skills

- execute a literary analysis correctly using established critical concepts or (depending on specialisation) execute a study of linguistic data using linguistic concepts and methods
- independently identify, formulate and solve problems within linguistics or literary studies
- use their time in such a way as to be able to complete assignments within predetermined time frames
- independently seek and use information within English linguistics or literary studies in libraries and databases
- discuss and present their own research and that of others while taking the context and audience into account
- use correct and idiomatic English when writing texts of an academic nature
- apply correct referencing and citation techniques in accordance with the standards in linguistics or literary studies

Judgement and approach

- critically review and assess different types of sources
- discuss the role of English in society and the responsibility of individuals and organisations for how it is used
- identify their need of further knowledge and skills
- make assessments informed by relevant disciplinary, societal or ethical aspects

Course content

The students choose (or have already chosen) a specialisation in either linguistics or literature for their studies. The skills and knowledge they have acquired on previous courses are to be applied in a degree project also enabling them to reinforce their ability to use English in speech and writing.

Course design

The teaching consists of seminars and individual supervision of the degree project. The supervision is limited to the semester the student first registered on the course, unless there are special reasons for another decision. The defence seminar is compulsory.

Assessment

The assessment is based on an individual degree project presented in the form of an academic paper. The degree project is to be discussed and defended at a final seminar. The discussion and defence are mandatory components of the assessment.

Passed degree projects at the Faculties of Humanities and Theology can be registered in the LUP Student Papers database if the student so wishes. The student is responsible for uploading the passed degree project as a PDF file in LUP student papers.

Grades

Marking scale: Fail, Pass, Pass with distinction.

For a grade of Pass on the whole course, the student must have been awarded at least this grade on the degree project. For a grade of Pass with Distinction on the whole course, the student must have been awarded at least this grade on the degree project.
