General Information

The course is offered as a freestanding course. It is also included in the Bachelor's programme in English. The course can normally be included in a first or second cycle degree.

Language of instruction: English

Main field of studies

English

Depth of study relative to the degree requirements

G1F, First cycle, has less than 60 credits in first-cycle course/s as entry requirements

Learning outcomes

On completion of the course, the students shall be able to

Knowledge and understanding

- provide a specialised account of English grammar

Competence and skills

- compare, assess and argue for different analyses of spoken and written English with regard to linguistic structure

Judgement and approach

- assess the appropriateness of different English expressions and sentences from a grammatical perspective

Course content

Based on continued study of English grammar, the students practise skills in grammatical analysis and the ability to account for the relationship between form and meaning in language.

Course design

The teaching consists of group exercises, lectures and seminars.

Assessment

The assessment is based on a written invigilated exam.

The examiner, in consultation with Disability Support Services, may deviate from the regular form of examination in order to provide a permanently disabled student with a form of examination equivalent to that of a student without a disability.

Subcourses that are part of this course can be found in an appendix at the end of this document.

Grades

Marking scale: Fail, Pass, Pass with distinction.

Entry requirements

To be admitted to the course, students must have passed ENGA04 or the equivalent.
