General Information

This is a freestanding course intended for exchange students only.

Language of instruction: English

Main field of studies

English

Depth of study relative to the degree requirements

G1N, First cycle, has only upper-secondary level entry requirements

Learning outcomes

On completion of the course, the students shall be able to

Competence and skills

- with access to aids, produce simple, academic texts in English featuring a clear structure, correct paragraphing and correct language.

Course content

The course provides the students with practice in reading and understanding English texts, and the ability to express themselves orally and in writing in correct, polished English. Students practise writing short texts of a general nature. The students are also trained in planning their work och adapting to predetermined time frames.

Course design

The teaching consists of lectures, workshops and teaching via a virtual learning environment.

Assessment

The assessment is based on 3-5 minor written assignments and an academic paper. The paper is written in four stages (process writing), all of which must be passed in order for the student to complete the course. All submissions are compulsory and the grade for the course is based both on the process and on the final version.

The examiner, in consultation with Disability Support Services, may deviate from the regular form of examination in order to provide a permanently disabled student with a form of examination equivalent to that of a student without a disability.

Subcourses that are part of this course can be found in an appendix at the end of this document.

Grades

Marking scale: Fail, Pass, Pass with distinction.

Entry requirements

General requirements and studies equivalent of course English 6 from Swedish Upper Secondary School.

Further information

1. The course is offered at the Centre for Languages and Literature, Lund University.
