Details of approval

The syllabus was approved by The pro-dean for First-Cycle Studies at the Faculties of Humanities and Theology on 2019-01-30 to be valid from 2019-01-30, spring semester 2019.

General Information

This is a freestanding course intended for exchange students only.

Language of instruction: English

Main field of studies

English

Depth of study relative to the degree requirements

G1N, First cycle, has only upper-secondary level entry requirements

Learning outcomes

On completion of the course, the students shall be able to

Knowledge and understanding

- provide a basic account of important parameters for the efficient learning of words and phrases in a foreign language

Competence and skills

- use a considerable lexicon of general English words and phrases, partly receptively, partly productively, in correct speech and writing

Course content

Supported by lectures and seminars at the start of the course, students practise efficient word and phrase learning throughout the course. The learning process is mainly in the form of independent study but is supported by some teaching during the course.

Course design

The teaching consists of lectures, workshops and teaching via a virtual learning environment.

Assessment

The assessment is based on a major written invigilated exam at the end of the course and four minor written invigilated exams during the course. The students are expected to take three of the four minor written exams. The results of the minor exams are added to the result of the major invigilated exam at the end and the total determines the grade for the course.

The examiner, in consultation with Disability Support Services, may deviate from the regular form of examination in order to provide a permanently disabled student with a form of examination equivalent to that of a student without a disability.

Subcourses that are part of this course can be found in an appendix at the end of this document.

Grades

Marking scale: Fail, Pass, Pass with distinction.

Entry requirements

General requirements and studies equivalent of course English 6 from Swedish Upper Secondary School.

Further information
