Course content

The course provides advanced insights into cultural analysis as pertaining to the current debates in research activities. Each student autonomously formulates a research programme on the basis of the chosen subject, and makes an inventory of previous research, and relevant theoretical and methodological studies.

The course consists of the following three sub-courses:

1. Cultural Analysis III, 7.5 credits,
2. Specialist Course, 7.5 credits,
3. Degree Project, 15 credits.

Course design

Teaching takes the form of lectures and tutorials. Tutorials and seminars are obligatory. The Degree Project is written individually and discussed at a seminar.

Assessment

Examinations can take the following forms: oral and/or written examinations at the end of the sub-course, and curriculum-based continuous assessment in the form of assignments, and contributions to seminars.

Passed degree projects at the Faculties of Humanities and Theology can be registered in the LUP Student Papers database if the student so wishes. The student is responsible for uploading the passed degree project as a PDF file in LUP student papers.

Subcourses that are part of this course can be found in an appendix at the end of this document.

Grades

Marking scale: Fail, Pass, Pass with distinction.

To be awarded a Pass on the whole course the student shall have passed all sub-courses. To be awarded a grade of Distinction on the whole course the student shall have achieved the grade of Distinction for at least 22.5 higher education credits on the course.

Entry requirements

To be eligible for the course requires the successful completion of ETNA21, or the equivalent.
