

LUND
UNIVERSITY

Faculties of Humanities and Theology

EUHR16, European Studies: Internship, 15 credits

Europastudier: Praktik, 15 högskolepoäng

Second Cycle / Avancerad nivå

Details of approval

The syllabus was approved by The pro-dean for First-Cycle Studies at the Faculties of Humanities and Theology on 2012-03-09 to be valid from 2012-03-09, autumn semester 2012.

General Information

Subject: European Studies

The course is an optional component of the Master of Arts programme in European Studies. The course can normally be included as part of a second-cycle degree.

Language of instruction: English

Main field of studies

-

Depth of study relative to the degree requirements

A1F, Second cycle, has second-cycle course/s as entry requirements

Learning outcomes

On completion of the course the student shall

Knowledge and understanding

- be able to demonstrate in-depth knowledge of and explain how skills in European Studies can be used to provide perspectives in professional life
- be able to explain and provide perspectives on previous training in European Studies in an in-depth manner.

Competence and skills

- be able to formulate a problem of relevance for European Studies and actively select and use relevant tools to solve the problem

- be able to use relevant theories of cultural and political situations in present-day Europe in real-life situations at a workplace
- be able to compile and communicate in writing the results of a selected inquiry within a predetermined time frame and scope
- be able to analyse basic organisational problems in professional life with the help of theoretical tools acquired in previous training in European Studies.

Judgement and approach

- be able to search for, evaluate, analyse and critically review information with a high degree of independence
- be able to judge how skills acquired in previous Humanities studies, European Studies in particular, can be used creatively in organisational practice
- be able to reflect on and take responsibility for his or her own work and learning process.

Course content

The course consists of a work placement at an agency, organisation or company in Europe. The student is to work full-time for at least 9 weeks on a selected problem and participate in the everyday activities at the workplace, assisted by a supervisor. The work assignment is to be connected to the previous training in European Studies.

Course design

The course consists of a full-time work placement for at least 9 weeks at an agency, organisation or company in Europe.

Assessment

On completion of the work placement, the student is to submit a carefully produced report presenting and analysing problems addressed by the student and the experiences of the placement. In addition to the report, the supervisor is to submit a certificate stating the personal details of the student, the principal duties assigned to the student, the duration and scope of the placement, and the nature of the problem formulated and solved by the student during his or her placement. For a grade of Pass, the student must also submit an evaluation.

Subcourses that are part of this course can be found in an appendix at the end of this document.

Grades

Marking scale: Fail, Pass.

As no conventional exam is included in the examination, no other grades are awarded.

Entry requirements

To be admitted to the course, students must have been admitted to the Master's programme in European Studies and passed the courses EUHR11, EUHR12 and EUHR15 or acquired equivalent knowledge in some other way.

Further information

1. It is the responsibility of the student to arrange a suitable work placement and finance travel, accommodation, etc. The programme coordinator must approve the work placement, the supervisor and principal duties before the placement studies can be commenced.
2. The credits allocated for course content that in whole or in part is commensurate with another course can only be credited once for a degree. For further details see the current registration information and other relevant documentation.
3. The course is offered at the Centre for Languages and Literature, Lund University.

Subcourses in EUHR16, European Studies: Internship

Applies from H11

1201 Internship, 15,0 hp
Grading scale: Fail, Pass