Course content

FRAC02 is the second beginners' course in French and is based on FRAC01. It focuses on spoken and written French, and on French culture.

It consists of three modules: Module 1 Text (3 credits), Module 2 Pronunciation and oral communication (3 credits), and Module 3 Grammar and vocabulary (4 credits).

Module 1 focuses on basic written text production in French with and without linguistic tools. Module 2 provides training of pronunciation and oral communication in French. Module 3 focuses on French grammar and vocabulary.

Course design

The teaching consists of lessons combining lectures, individual exercises and group exercises in equal measures.

Assessment

Module 1 is assessed through two written assignments.

Module 2 is assessed through an oral presentation.

Module 3 is assessed through a written on-campus exam.

Two opportunities for examination of modules 2 and 3 are offered in conjunction with the end of the semester: a first exam and a retake. Within a year after the end of the course at least two additional examination sessions on the same course contents are offered. After this, further re-examination opportunities are offered, but in accordance with the current course syllabus.

The examiner, in consultation with Disability Support Services, may deviate from the regular form of examination in order to provide a permanently disabled student with a form of examination equivalent to that of a student without a disability.

Grades

Grading scale includes the grades: Fail, Pass, Pass with distinction

The grades awarded for Module 1 are Fail and Pass. The grades awarded for Modules 2 and 3 are Fail, Pass and Pass with Distinction.

For a grade of Pass, the student must have been awarded this grade for the three modules. For a grade of Pass with Distinction, the student must also have been awarded this grade for Module 3.
