Course content

The course provides students with a broad empirical introduction to Islam from a historical, religious and present-day perspective. It focuses on the historical emergence of Islam from Muhammad's time to the present, on the basic texts, rituals and theological foundations, and on Muslim religious life, mediation of tradition and interpretation in a minority context. Furthermore, the course deals with the function of history as an interpretative framework in Muslim history, new religious actors and media for interpretation and central theological debates. Finally, the course considers Islam in Sweden, and Swedish and European societies as religious arenas for present-day Muslims.

The course consists of four modules:

1. Present-Day Islamic discussions, 7.5 credits,
2. Muhammad, the Quran and the Formative History, 7.5 credits,
3. Islam in the Age of Empires, 7.5 credits,
4. The Muslims in Europe, 7.5 credits.

Course design

The teaching consists of lectures, seminars and compulsory group work.
