Course content

The course provides students with training in oral and written language proficiency including grammar, vocabulary, pronunciation, listening comprehension, and general knowledge of Italy's language, literature, society, culture and history.

The course consists of the following modules:

1. Written Italian, 7.5 credits,
2. Spoken Italian, 7.5 credits,
3. Italian literature, 7.5 credits,
4. Culture and Society, 7.5 credits.

Course design

The teaching consists of lectures, group work and individual practical exercises.

The course is offered as a distance learning course, and makes use of interactive information technology. Students are required to participate on this basis and to have access to a computer with an internet connection and a webcam. The department will provide information about technical requirements.

Assessment

Module 1 is examined through a compulsory written assignment and a camera-monitored examination using real-time streaming,

Module 2 is examined through an oral examination using real-time streaming,

The assessment of module 3 is based on a written assignment and an oral online presentation,

The assessment of module 4 is based on a written assignment and an oral online presentation.

Camera monitoring takes place in real time. No recording takes place. Monitoring in real time is required in order to be able to assess the student's knowledge without students having access to aids.

The examiner, in consultation with Disability Support Services, may deviate from the regular form of examination in order to provide a permanently disabled student with a form of examination equivalent to that of a student without a disability.

Grades

Grading scale includes the grades: Fail, Pass, Pass with distinction

The grade of Pass on module 1 requires at least the grade of Pass on both the written examination and on the compulsory written assignment. For the grade of Pass with distinction on module 1, the grade of Pass with distinction is required on both the written examination and on the compulsory written assignment.

The grade of Pass on module 3 and 4 requires at least the grade of Pass on both the oral presentation and on the written exam. For the grade of Pass with distinction on module 3 and 4, the grade of Pass with distinction is required on both the oral presentation and the written exam.

For the grade of pass on the whole course, the student must have been awarded the grade of pass or higher for all modules. For a grade of Pass with Distinction on the whole course, the student must have been awarded this grade on at least 22.5 credits of the course's 7.5 credits and a grade of Pass on the remaining credits.
