They shall simultaneously perform independent investigation and take full responsibility for the development of their own knowledge in an objective, but critical manner.

To pass the examination the students shall be able to consider and discuss social and ethical responsibilities within a commercial environment and make personal judgments based on these reflections.

Course content

The course includes a review of European Competition - its economic basis, material contents and current development. The course attaches great importance to the case law of the Union Courts and the EU Commission. Focus will be on cartels, abuse of a dominant position and Merger Control and Procedural Law.

Course design

Teaching is provided in the form of lectures and seminars. Apart from the assigned literature, the course requires individual literature studies.

In order to pass, students are required to meet 80% attendance on the course.

Assessment

Examination will take the form of a paper assignment and a take home exam. Grading will be based on active participation and recurring presentations in lectures and seminars (25% of the grade), the written assignment (25% of the grade) and a take home exam (50% of the grade).

Grades

Marking scale: Fail, Pass, Pass with credit, Pass with distinction.

All grading criteria rest on the baseline set up for the grade B. Criteria for the grade BA are additional to those for the grade B. Criteria for the grade AB are additional to those for the grade BA. Each grade criterion consists of a qualitative and a quantitative dimension. To be awarded a specific grade, the grade criterion must be satisfied in its qualitative as well as its quantitative dimension.

Grading criteria are applied to all dimensions listed as "Learning outcomes" in this syllabus. By way of example, an AB would presuppose that the student's examination reflect her or his mastery with regard to knowledge and understanding, skills and abilities and values and attitudes as laid down in the syllabus as "learning outcomes". Grading is done primarily using Qualitative and Quantitative criteria. The Quantitative criterion reflects how well read the student is whereas the Qualitative criterion reflects how well the student can use his/her knowledge to make a well structured critical and analytical argument and put it in a proper context.
