Details of approval

The syllabus was approved by The pro-dean for First-Cycle Studies at the Faculties of Humanities and Theology on 2022-06-13 to be valid from 2022-09-12, spring semester 2023.

General Information

The course is offered as a freestanding course and can normally be included in a first or second cycle degree.

Language of instruction: Swedish

Learning outcomes

On completion of the course, students shall be able to:

Knowledge and understanding

- give an account of the differing pronunciation of post-classical Latin including the principles of emphasis,
- identify the grammatical structures in known liturgical texts and hymns in Latin,
- give an account of additional conjugation of nouns, adjectives and verbs in Latin,

Competence and skills

- read post-classical Latin texts with Italian and Germanic pronunciation and with correct emphasis,
- translate a selection of liturgical texts and hymns from Latin,

Judgement and approach

- evaluate the importance of Latin from a broader historical perspective,
- identify what additional knowledge of Latin they need.

Course content

The course builds on the contents of Latin in Choir Music, stage 1. Knowledge of Latin grammar is improved through continued reading of liturgical texts and Latin hymns. During the course, skills in different types of Latin pronunciation will be developed further.

Course design

The teaching consists of lessons and group exercises.

Assessment

The assessment is based on a take-home exam.

The examiner, in consultation with Disability Support Services, may deviate from the regular form of examination in order to provide a permanently disabled student with a form of examination equivalent to that of a student without a disability.

Subcourses that are part of this course can be found in an appendix at the end of this document.

Grades

Marking scale: Fail, Pass, Pass with distinction.

Entry requirements

General entry requirements and LATC01 or equivalent knowledge.
