Learning outcomes

On completion of the course, the students shall be able to

Knowledge and understanding

- account both in general and in detail for the Golden Age of Spanish literature
- provide a specialised description of Spanish cultural life during the Golden Age
- account for Spanish Golden Age literature from the perspectives of both history and literary theory

Competence and skills

- account for Spanish Golden Age literature in its historical context
- account for the importance of the Golden Age for Spanish culture and identity
- apply and critically review the available handbooks and methodological tools for learning how to analyse and interpret texts

Judgement and approach

- identify and critically evaluate the themes and types of Spanish literature in relation to the cultural and political situation in Spain during the Golden Age

Course content

The course mainly deals with Golden Age texts that have made a major impression on Spanish literature, primarily prose but also poetry and drama. Among the works studied in the course are Don Quijote and Lazarillo de Tormes.

Course design

The course includes lectures and group exercises. Attendance is compulsory in all components.

Assessment

The assessment is based on a final written assignment and an oral exam.

The examiner may deviate from the regular form of examination if the student has been granted an alternative form of examination by the Disability Support Services, and if it complies with the learning outcomes of the course.

Subcourses that are part of this course can be found in an appendix at the end of this document.

Grades

Marking scale: Fail, Pass, Pass with distinction.

Entry requirements

To be admitted to the course, students must have completed Spanish Level 3 specialising in literature, or the equivalent.

Further information

- The course is offered at the Centre for Languages and Literature, Lund University.
- The credits allocated for course content that in whole or in part is commensurate with another course can only be credited once for a degree. For further details see the current registration information and other relevant documentation.
