General information

Freestanding course.

Language of instruction: English

Main field of study Specialisation

Music G1F, First cycle, has less than 60 credits in first-cycle course/s as entry requirements

Learning outcomes

On completion of the course, the students shall be able to

- make connections between situations/events and a reflecting perspective.
- connect reflecting perspective with their own music-making.
- explain how principles of reflecting perspective function.

Course content

The course contains lectures, group work as well as dialogue in the group. With different issues and methods, what reflecting perspective is explored can make for the individual participant.

Course design

The course is carried out through workshops, seminar, group work, literature studies and reflection.

Assessment

In the examinations, the students' learning process through written presentation (own log book) is summarised and presented as well as orally in the group.

In the log book, the student should follow a timetable and every week write down reflections about their own training and connect it to the course content.

Intended course learning outcomes two be presented also in the form of a physical performance for the group.

The examiner, in consultation with Disability Support Services, may deviate from the regular form of examination in order to provide a permanently disabled student with a form of examination equivalent to that of a student without a disability.

Grades

Grading scale includes the grades: Fail, Pass
