Course content

The course content is determined by the preconditions that follow repertoire and ensemble type and are specific to the instrument. The course mainly consists of certain works from the orchestra repertoire for the instrument.

Course design

The course is carried out in the form of group lessons, seminars, orchestra rehearsals, workshops/master classes and individual work (practicing, preparations). Attendance is compulsory for projects within the education.

Assessment

Examination of the course is arranged through continuous assessment and, in applicable cases, project presentations. Examination rules and mark limits shall be communicated to the student at the beginning of the course.

Re-examination shall be offered in close connection to the regular examination.

The examiner, in consultation with Disability Support Services, may deviate from the regular form of examination in order to provide a permanently disabled student with a form of examination equivalent to that of a student without a disability.

Subcourses that are part of this course can be found in an appendix at the end of this document.
