Course content

The course enables students to specialise their understanding of a number of theoretical perspectives, methods and research issues of one of the elective research areas: fiction, documentary prose, cultural history or translation.

Course design

The teaching consists of lectures, seminars (of which 3-5 are compulsory) and group supervision.

Assessment

The assessment is based on 3-5 written assignments, 3-5 peer review assignments and a take-home exam.

The examiner may deviate from the regular form of assessment if it cannot be implemented during a re-examination, and if it complies with the learning outcomes of the course.

The examiner, in consultation with Disability Support Services, may deviate from the regular form of examination in order to provide a permanently disabled student with a form of examination equivalent to that of a student without a disability.

Subcourses that are part of this course can be found in an appendix at the end of this document.

Grades

Marking scale: Fail, Pass, Pass with distinction.

For a grade of Pass with Distinction on the whole course, the student must have been awarded this grade from all assessed components.
