

Joint Faculties of Humanities and Theology

SASH15, A Survey of Swedish Music History, 7.5 credits

A Survey of Swedish Music History, 7,5 högskolepoäng

First Cycle / Grundnivå

Details of approval

The syllabus was approved by the programmes director by delegation from the pro-dean for first- and second-cycle studies on 2007-08-28. The syllabus comes into effect 2007-08-28 and is valid from the autumn semester 2007.

General information

Subject: Musicology

The course is offered as a single course. It can normally be included as part of a general degree at the undergraduate or graduate levels. With the approval of the relevant authenticating body, it can also be included in certain professional degrees.

Language of instruction: English

Main field of study

Specialisation

Musicology

G1N, First cycle, has only upper-secondary level entry requirements

Learning outcomes

On completion of the course the student shall

Knowledge and understanding

- be able to give an overview of the history of Swedish music, composers, works and musicians.

Competence and skills

- be able to give an overview of and characterise the main features of Swedish music.

Judgement and approach

- be able to relate his/her knowledge of the history of Swedish music to various social and cultural contexts.

Course content

The student is given an orientation in the history of Swedish music from the Stone Age until today. Social and historical contexts are of central importance to this course. An emphasis is placed on classical music, jazz and rock; however, other Swedish music styles are also examined.

Course design

Teaching consists of lectures, seminars and autonomous assignments.

Assessment

Examinations can take the following forms: individual take-home examination and/or invigilated examination.

Grades

Grading scale includes the grades: Fail, Pass, Pass with distinction

Entry requirements

General requirements for university studies in Sweden

Further information

1. The course replaces SAS102.
2. The points allocated for course content that in whole or in part is commensurate with another course can only be credited once for a degree. For further details see the current registration information and other relevant documentation.