Learning outcomes

On completion of the course, students shall be able to:

Knowledge and understanding

- account for Swedish language grammar (morphology and syntax) and basic semantics at a general level,

Competence and skills

- analyse and describe the Swedish language at different levels: word, phrase, and clause levels, with regard to form, function and meaning,

This is a translation of the course syllabus approved in Swedish

- undertake primary parsing in Swedish text examples,
- analyse and describe syntactic variation,

Judgement and approach

- take a scientific approach to grammar in spoken and written form.

Course content

During the course, an introduction is given to grammar and semantics and students are trained to analyse and describe the Swedish language at different levels: word, phrase, and clause levels, with regard to form, function and meaning.

Course design

The teaching consists of lectures and exercises.

Assessment

Assessment takes the form of an invigilated written exam at the end of the course.

The examiner, in consultation with Disability Support Services, may deviate from the regular form of examination in order to provide a permanently disabled student with a form of examination equivalent to that of a student without a disability.

Subcourses that are part of this course can be found in an appendix at the end of this document.

Grades

Marking scale: Fail, Pass, Pass with distinction.
