General Information

The course is offered as a single course. It can normally be included as part of a first or second cycle degree.

Language of instruction: Swedish and English

The course is normally taught in English, but can also be taught in Swedish, provided there is a special agreement between the lecturer/s and the students. Such an agreement requires that all lecturers and all students are proficient in Swedish. Noncompulsory material in Yiddish may be included.

Main field of studies

Yiddish

Depth of study relative to the degree requirements

G1F, First cycle, has less than 60 credits in first-cycle course/s as entry requirements

Learning outcomes

On completion of the course, the students shall be able to

Knowledge and understanding

- be able to describe the fundamental syntax and morphology of Yiddish
- be able to describe works of fiction written in Yiddish.

Competence and skills

- be able to read and translate into Swedish simple fictional texts in Yiddish, prose, poetic songs and current journals
- be able to account for the content of recorded conversations in Yiddish and translate them into Swedish
- be able to demonstrate a good level of oral and written language usage
- be able to communicate in Yiddish in everyday situations of medium difficulty

Judgement and approach

- be able to relate the language and culture of Yiddish to issues of gender, ethnicity, cultural exchange and diversity

Course content

The course provides students with knowledge of the morphology, syntax and vocabulary of Yiddish that goes beyond that of the beginner's level. Students increase their oral and written proficiency primarily by means of translating literature and video recordings.

The course consists of the following modules:

1. Grammar, reading comprehension and translation, 5 credits
2. Oral and written language proficiency, 5 credits
3. History of language and literature, 5 credits

Course design

Teaching consists of lectures, group exercises and seminars.

The course is offered entirely as a distance learning course and makes use of an online learning platform and digital tools. Students are required to participate under these conditions, and to have access to a computer with an Internet connection. The department will provide information about the technical requirements.

Assessment

The following forms of examination may occur: written examination, oral examination and take-home examination.

Subcourses that are part of this course can be found in an appendix at the end of this document.

The examiner, in consultation with Disability Support Services, may deviate from the regular form of examination in order to provide a permanently disabled student with a form of examination equivalent to that of a student without a disability.

Subcourses that are part of this course can be found in an appendix at the end of this document.

Grades

Marking scale: Fail, Pass, Pass with distinction.

To be awarded the grade of Pass on the whole course the student shall have at least the grade of Pass on all modules. To be awarded the grade of Pass with Distinction on the whole course the student shall have the grade of Pass with Distinction on at least 10 of the credits on the course and a grade of Pass on the remaining credits.
