G1F, First cycle, has less than 60 credits in first-cycle course/s as entry requirements

Learning outcomes

On completion of the course, the students shall be able to:

Knowledge and understanding

- account for some examples of Latin American literature, from the 20th century in particular, and some basic literary concepts
- provide a basic account of Spanish linguistics
- account for essential contrastive differences between Spanish and Swedish and for language variation in Spanish
- account for the outline and structure of academic texts written in Spanish and translated from Swedish into Spanish
- identify different registers in texts written in Spanish
- provide a general account of current school curricula for the subject of Spanish
- give an account of some theoretical perspectives on language learning and language didactics,
- give an account of present course syllabi and intended course learning outcomes for the school subject Spanish,

Competence and skills

- speak and write Spanish with a level of lexical and grammatical correctness in both formal and informal contexts that does not cause communication problems in a teaching situation
- apply basic linguistic concepts to both set and own examples of Spanish and Swedish
- identify examples of Spanish language variation based on phonetics and phonology, and morphosyntax
- execute an analysis of an aspect of the literary texts of the course in Spanish
- apply required knowledge of academic writing in individually written texts within predetermined time frames
- compare and take a position on different methods of teaching Spanish
- plan a teaching component and carry out it using adequate terminology suited to a classroom situation,

Judgement and approach

- discuss and take a position on issues of gender, ethnicity, cultural encounters and cultural diversity from different literary and linguistic perspectives related to Spanish
- take a critical position on source material and their own knowledge acquisition,
- use knowledge of the acquisition of Spanish as a second language to assess the language proficiency of pupils

Course content

The course provides students with specialised knowledge of language, literature, society in Spain and Latin America. The course also provides students with advanced oral and written proficiency, which given its scope and nature, comprises a considerable step towards the Spanish language as a scientific discipline. In the course, the student also obtains an introduction to the research domains language learning and language didactics, and to Spanish as school subject. Some of the exercises that occur in the course are conducted with a didactic specialisation and include participation in a number of didactic seminars that aim to initiate the student teacher into their future profession.

The course consists of three modules:

1. Latin American Literature, 6 credits
2. Spanish Linguistics, 6 credits
3. Spanish Didactics, 6 credits,
4. Spanish Grammar and Exercises, 6 credits
5. Academic Writing, 6 credits

Course design

The teaching consists of lectures and group exercises. Unless there are special circumstances, students must attend at least 80% of the lectures and group exercises. The course also includes a number of compulsory assignments:

Module 1: 2 written assignments

Module 2: 2 written assignments, 1 oral presentation

Module 3: 1 written assignment, 1 oral presentation

Module 4: 2 written assignments, 1 oral presentation

The opportunity to compensate for or resit compulsory components will be offered to students who have been unable to participate due to circumstances out of their control such as accidents, illness or similar. This also applies to students who have missed teaching sessions because of duties as a student representative. Otherwise, there will be no opportunity to compensate for compulsory components.

Assessment

The assessment of module 1 is based on 1 written invigilated exam and 1 oral presentation.

The assessment of Module 2 is based on 1 invigilated exam.

The assessment of module 3 is based on 1 written invigilated exam and 1 oral presentation.

The assessment of Module 4 is based on 1 invigilated exam.

The assessment of Module 5 is based on 2 invigilated written exams.

The examiner, in consultation with Disability Support Services, may deviate from the regular form of examination in order to provide a permanently disabled student with a form of examination equivalent to that of a student without a disability.

Subcourses that are part of this course can be found in an appendix at the end of this document.
