Kursens innehåll

This course introduces International Political Economy (IPE) with an emphasis on theories, theorists and issues that problematise the politics and political economy of development, North-South relations and ethics. The first part of the course is designed to examine the roots of International Political Economy and a range of critical theories and approaches that inform the study of processes of socio-economic transformation in the global South. The second substantive part of the course explores issues at the forefront of contemporary debates at the intersection of IPE and development. These include finance, financialisation and crises, trade and fair trade, multinational corporations and corporate social responsibility, the global division of labour and trade unions, global economic governance and the greening of the global political economy.

Kursens genomförande

Teaching includes lectures and seminars. The course is assessed through written assignments, final essay and active participation in class and seminars. Attendance to the seminars is compulsory and absences need to be notified to the course convenor as soon as possible. Written assignments count 50% towards the final grade, while the final essay makes up the remaining 50%. In order to pass the course, all the assessments need to be successfully completed.

Kursens examination

Re-examination is offered after the end of the course. If necessary, a second re-examination is arranged at a later date.
