

Literature for PMGA01, Introduction to Public Management applies from autumn semester 2021

Literature established by Academic Director of Studies at Department of Business Administration on 2021-06-01 to apply from 2021-06-01

Hill, C.J. and Lynn Jr, L-E. (2015) Public Management. Thinking and Acting in Three Dimensions. (Second edition). ISBN: 9781483344324

A list of articles covering both classics and contemporary matters of concern within the field of public management. Examples include:

Hood, C. (1991) A Public Management for all Seasons? Public Administration, 69, pp. 3-19.

Osborne. S. (2017) From public service-dominant logic to public service logic: Are public service organizations capable of co-production and value co-creation? Public Management Review, pp.225-231.

Students are also expected, on an individual basis, to find additional literature given the nature of the topics they are studying.